

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

CRU GROUP Announces Opening of Florida Office

Toronto, Ontario Canada June 26, 2018

Kyle Winston, President and CEO of CRU GROUP, announced today the opening of a new office in Stuart, Florida. This location will enable CRU GROUP to better serve its growing list of major clients in Florida as well as serve as a base for the Group's Catastrophe Operations across the USA.

"We are very excited have our Florida location open," said Paula Holladay, USA Operations Manager "With our new management and the amazing team we have in place in Florida, we are going to be able to provide great value and services to local insurers and insurers across the USA."

In addition to functioning as the home base for Catastrophe Operations, the Stuart office will also accommodate inside and field adjusters for daily claims, a training center for the Academy of Insurance Adjusting and a call center with FNOL capabilities.

"Complementing what we have accomplished with our Texas location," said Mr. Winston "the Stuart office will expand our ability to service our key accounts within Florida. We look forward to expanding our relationships with other insurers within the state and throughout the USA from this new base of operations."
